The Young Ladies' Sodality of St.
Patrick's church will entertain with a Halloween social and card party next Friday afternoon and night in St. Patrick's Hall at Thirteenth and Market. This will be one of the largest parties of the season, and the ladies have made elaborate plans for the entertainment of their guests.

SHOOT AT BISHOP.

day at Harbor Grace the Right Rev.
Bishop March was fired upon by a man named James Hare, believed to be insane. Hare fired twice before several fishermen overpowered him.
One shot grazed the head of the Bishop, wounding him slightly, while the other buried itself in the altar.
In spite of his injury Bishop March concluded the mass after a physician had bound up his head.

FACES ANOTHER TRIAL.

Thomas E. Watson, the Georgia editor and politician, who was freed from a charge of sending obscene matter through the mails in the Federal Court at Augusta on Tuesday, may soon face another indictment.
His case was presented to the Federal grand jury again after his counsel made a futile effort to have the court bring in the juryman and "search their consciences" to learn if a prejudice existed against Watson.

RECOVERING.

The many friends of F. A. Clegg, the well known contractor, will be glad to learn that he is recovering rapidly from his recent illness.

LYNCH LANDS.

Gov. Glynn, of New York, announced Wednesday that he would send to the Senate that night the name of James M. Lynch, of convention of that church in New York City, expressed it as his belief that it was the duty of parents to impart information to their children, and no one else should. "It is the fathers and mothers whom God has ordained," said he, "to educate their boys and girls. If the world is to be changed we must begin with the children. There will be no need of teaching sex hygiene in the schools if there has been instruction in the home."

TO W. W. DAVIES.

In a recent interview Mr. W. W.
Davies, the leading orator of the local Progressive party, stated that it convinced that that party was making a campaign upon religious prejudice he would renounce connection with their nefarious purpose.
The circulation of anonymous anti-Catholic literature, the utterances of Progressive candidates, and lastly the convincing statement of Dr.
Aquila Webb, now makes that step imperative in the opinion of all fair-minded citizens, regardless of creed, and Mr. Davies, without abating one whit in his political views, can with honor to himself render a service to Louisville's good name by refusing further to be an ally to this dark lantern crew.

MINISTERS CONFIDENT.

To sum up the home rule situation, the Asquith Government, though confronted by problems and difficulties of no mean order, has its face firmly set to the prosecution of the work it undertook when it entered office. Prognostications of its downfall are common enough, but they come from quarters which render them suspect, and among the Ministers themselves there exists a confident belief that under the guidance of the Premier, who has proved himself a master statesman, the ship of state will not only weather the storms that beset it but will also be steered safely and triumphantly to port where captain and officers will be able to say that they carried out their commission.

REPRESENTATIVE PAIR.

W. W. Davies must surely be proud of his fellow Bull Moose orators, Messrs. Reno and Rennesen.
These worthies are disgusting everyone in sight by their silly, maudlin speeches, and making votes for the Democratic ticket.

COMMON SENSE REBELS.

Catholic educators have taken a decided stand on the teaching of sex hygiene in the schools. As the True Voice says, the wonder is that anyone could be found to advocate the turning loose of half-brained sex-hygieneists upon innocent children. Common sense rebels against it and modesty revolts at the brazen immorality of the project.

The Committee on State of the Church, reporting Tuesday to the Episcopal convention in New York City, noted a loss of more than 16,000 pupils within the last three years from the Sunday-schools of the Protestant Episcopal church in the United States.

To Duncan Clark—Sorry that you have to go and can not be here to enjoy the splendid incoming Democratic administration.

Christmas holidays are drawing near. Begin your shopping now.

WALNUT THEATER.

The Walnut Theater will next week present another excellent vaudeville bill, in which new faces and new acts will be introduced.
Manager Hilton has established the popularity of the Walnut, which is now recognized as the family amusement house of the city. Every day new feature photo plays are shown to large and appreciative audiences, furnishing an hour of real enjoyment.

MARY KELLEY DEAD.

Mrs. Mary E. Kelley, sixty-seven years of age, widow of Thomas Kelley, died Tuesday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. G.
Johnson, 540 South Thirteenth street. A daughter and a son survive her. Her funeral took place Thursday morning from the Sacred Heart church, Rev. Patrick Walsh being the celebrant of the requiem mass.

Commandant of Puget Sound navy yard, who is a Catholic, retires on February 14 next.
